WRITTEN STATEMENT AND SUPPORT MATERIAL

ALL APPLICANTS ARE REQUIRED TO READ THE PROJECT ASSISTANCE GUIDELINES

The written statement, accompanied by the submitted support material, forms the basis of assessment for each application.

Applications will be evaluated by a peer assessment jury against the program criteria and the four areas of assessment.

In preparing their proposal, applicants should:

- For organizations: Consider and discuss how the project addresses their mandate, mission and values in each of the three areas of assessment.
- For all applicants: Consider and discuss how the applicant fulfills their artistic/curatorial objectives in each of the three areas of assessment.

All applicants should refer to New Foundations: Strategic Plan for the British Columbia Arts Council 2018-2022 alongside the Assessment Criteria section of the PROJECT ASSISTANCE—Touring Initiatives GUIDELINES in preparing their proposals.

Applicants are reminded that while they are asked to consider a number of possible criteria under each area of assessment, not all of the criteria will apply to each application; rather, they are examples of aspects that should be considered and addressed in the application if relevant to the applicant and the project being proposed.

The relative weight given to each of these areas of assessment is indicated in brackets.

1. Artistic Contribution and Significance (40%)
2. Engagement and Impact (25%)
3. Feasibility (25%)
4. Cultural Competency and Agility (10%)

Each applicant must submit the following written statement in five parts (maximum four pages total, font size 11 or larger, on single-side white paper without staples).

The BC Arts Council believes that artists and arts organizations are well placed to assess the work they produce. Applicants are encouraged to critically assess the challenges faced and the creative solutions under consideration.

1. Please describe the project for which you are requesting assistance, including:

- A brief summary of the project, including title if applicable/determined.
- A list of participating artists and other participants according to area of responsibility for this project.
- Venue(s) and dates, indicating confirmations, as applicable.

2. Describe the mandate and history of the applicant, or applicants, including:

- A summary of the organization's, ensemble's, collective's, group's or individual artist's history in creating, developing, producing or disseminating art, including touring history.
- For organizations and collectives, please include your mandate and mission statement, as applicable.

3. Outline up to three highlights of the applicant's or participants' past work and its relationship to the current tour.

4. Provide an overview of the touring opportunity, including:

- A brief description of the event, festival, and/or venues at which the work will be featured.
- The significance of the opportunity within the applicant's artistic context, current practice, objectives and trajectory.
- Describe any significant measures taken in the development of the tour.

5. Outline measures that have been planned to ensure the financial and artistic success of this project, including:

- Up to three initiatives that will maximize the opportunities for artistic development and/or engagement with existing or emerging networks, audiences, markets, and publics for the applicant's work.

Please contact your program officer if there are significant changes or updates to the project proposal after the application deadline.

The deadline for Project Assistance – Touring Initiatives applications are: April 1 / August 15 / December 1

Applications are accepted by mail and must be postmarked by Canada Post or a courier company no later than the deadline date.

Applications may be hand delivered or delivered by courier to 800 Johnson Street, Victoria, BC, up to 4:00 p.m. on the deadline day.

Applications by email or fax will not be accepted.

Note: if the deadline falls on a weekend or statutory holiday, the deadline becomes the next business day.

Application Checklist

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure applications are complete and all application requirements are included. The BC Arts Council will not contact applicants to address errors in applications or missing application requirements, including support material, other than that required to determine eligibility. Eligible applications and any supporting material will be assessed as they have been submitted.

Application packages must be assembled in the order listed below.

The application should be printed on single-sided, standard letter-sized white paper and submitted unbound and without staples.

Before you submit your application, ensure that you have included the following:

- A signed, completed Project Assistance –Touring Initiatives application form (page one).
- A written statement of no more than four pages, font size 11 or larger, which addresses all application questions and includes details of the proposed project.
- Maximum 250-word bio for each member of the project's creative team.
- A tour itinerary, separate from the written statement.
- A detailed, working budget for the proposed touring project.
- Written confirmations of engagement from the hosting organizations including fees/guarantees, dates and other information on venues.
- A list of confirmed or invited contacts or presenters attending the performances or exhibitions, if applicable.
- A résumé of the artist/organization's representative, if applicable.
- The tour's marketing, market development, or public programming/outreach plan (for Category B only).
- An operating budget for the fiscal year in which the proposed project takes place (for organizations only).
- A list of the organization's current board of directors, including their occupations and start dates (for organizations only).
- A list of administrative and artistic/curatorial staff or significant contractors, giving name and title or responsibility (indicate if permanent/seasonal and full-time/part-time) (for organizations only).
- One copy of the organization's most recent Financial Statements (for organizations only).
- Two letters of reference from established professionals familiar with the work of the organization or artist(s). (for applicants who have not previously received funding through this program only).

Support Material:

- Up to five pages of relevant press or critical documentation.

For Performing Arts applicants:

- No more than two contrasting audio or video recordings, to a maximum duration of three minutes. Selection(s) should be cued or clearly specified. Where available, submitted documentation should be of the work to be toured. Recordings must be playable and in DVD, CD, MP3 or MP4 formats.

For Visual Arts, Museums and Media Arts applicants:

- One hard copy or link to online catalogue of a recent exhibition, if applicable.
- Audio-visual support material consisting of:
 - o No more than two contrasting recordings, to a maximum duration of three minutes; OR,
 - o A maximum of five images (jpg or transparency format), with accompanying list.

For Literary Arts, Creative Writing and Publishing applicants only:

- Writing sample to a maximum of ten pages.

Support material will not be returned and will be circulated to the jury only at the time of the adjudication meeting.
