Arts-Based Community Development Program

Professional¹ Artist Information Form (to accompany all A-BCD applications)

NOTICE TO ARTIST: The BC Arts Council would appreciate information on your professional¹ artistic qualifications, and the nature of the collaborative partnership between yourself and the applicant organization.

- A) Please describe your artistic training and related achievements, and explain how they will contribute to the success of the proposed arts-based community development project.
- B) Please describe how you plan to guide the creative process while ensuring the participant community² is an equal contributor.

Comment on these points in the spaces below, or attach a separate page. Please type or print clearly in black ink. Your comments will be considered by the jury in its evaluation of the applicant.

Please return the form to the BC Arts Council at the above address by the program deadline Friday, July 30, 2010 (postmarked).

¹ For the purposes of this program, an artist is considered to be a professional if he or she:

- a) has completed their basic education, which may have been an apprenticeship or internship, instruction from elders, study at an art school or university, or other forms of guided learning;
- b) has produced a body of work;
- c) is recognized by his or her peers through public presentation of work; and
- d) would, if it were feasible, work full-time at their art practice.

² For the purposes of this program, a community is a group of people with common interests defined by place, tradition, intention or spirit.
