Other Support Materials

Two letters of reference from established professionals in the applicant's discipline, commenting on the applicant's ability, and on the value of the residency/mentorship for the applicant's professional and career development. Reference letters should be from people who are familiar with the applicant's practice, training, and long-term aspirations.

Signed reference letters may be uploaded here or a referrer may email their letter directly to the BC Arts Council office, to BCArtsCouncil@gov.bc.ca. Reference letters must include the applicant's name and must refer to the Early Career Development program. If emailing directly, referrers must be aware of the program deadline. If reference letters are not received by the program deadline, the application will be considered incomplete.

If letters are being emailed directly by the referrer, the applicant should inform the Program Officer before submitting the application.

A one-page letter from the mentor confirming their participation. The letter should include a biographical statement indicating their experience and qualifications to mentor the applicant, outline their capacity to carry out the mentorship, and describe the potential impacts of the mentorship on both the mentor and the applicant.

Resumé or CV for the mentor
